

When and where might this have been posted?
How would it have made you feel if you were Irish?

In diversity there is beauty and there is strength.

-Maya Angelou

This attitude seeks to exclude people.
We describe it as exclusive.

This attitude seeks to include people. We describe it as inclusive.

We are an inclusive school

Put your hand up if you...

- Walk to school
- Speak a language other than English
- Have blue eyes
- Are an only child
- Went to Hall Green Juniors
- Went to Springfield
- Were born in the UK
- Wear glasses
- Have ever visited another country
- Have ever been to the seaside

The matching game

Nobel Peace Prize
Winner – Malala
Yousefzai

Top scientist who is researching black holes
– Stephen Hawking

Gold medal winner –
Ellie Simmonds

The matching game

Boxer (and also gold medal winner) – Nicola Adams

Mayor of London – Sadiq Khan

Registered as blind – David Blunkett – former Home Secretary

The matching game

Poet – Linton Kwesi
Johnson

Author – J K Rowling

(Former) Prime minister (of Pakistan) –
Benazir Bhutto

The matching game

Top mathematician –
Carol Vorderman

Top politician and former captain of the Pakistan cricket team – Imran Khan

Has dyslexia and ADHD –
Richard Branson

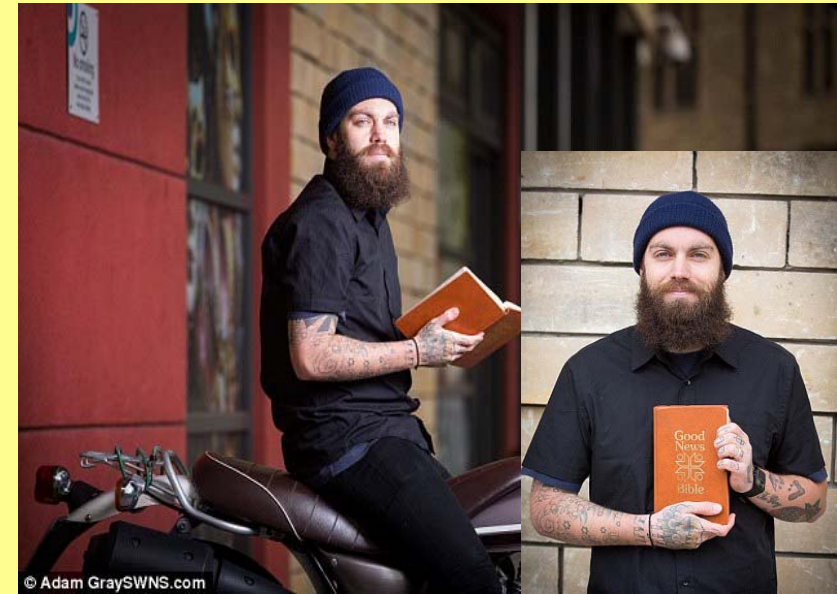

The matching game

Son of a refugee – Ed Miliband

Terrorist – Anders Breivik

Vicar – Rev Rob Popejoy

What sort of behaviours would show that people are not being inclusive?

What sort of words would describe the behaviours in an inclusive school?

HGS is an inclusive school because...

...everyone shows respect to each other, even though we are all very different...

HGS is an inclusive school because...

...we welcome
and celebrate diversity...

Love knows no labels

“We are far more united and have far more in common than that which divides us”

JO COX, MAIDEN SPEECH

“I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will be judged not by the colour of their skin but by the content of their character.”

